HON. JOHN A. LOGAN,

"BLACK EAGLE."

ILLINOIS' STATESMAN IN BRONZE.

Chicago, July 22.—The John A. Logan monument in Lake Front Park was dedicated with much pomp this afternoon. A few minutes past 1 o'clock John A. Logan III, the five year old grandson of the "Black Eagle," pulled the silken cord which parted the veils concealing the magnificent likeness of the great commander as he rallied the broken ranks of the federal troops and led them on to victory before the city of Atlanta, July 22, 1864.

Crowds began assembling along Michigan avenue at an early hour this morning, anticipating the crush which was to follow, and proceeded to establish themselves in position for a day of sightseeing. Reviewing stands lined the broad thoroughfare facing the monument. Window space was at a premium. As 1 o'clock, the hour set for the unveiling, drew near, the jam became almost unbearable. But police precautions were timely and the crowds good-natured.

DESCRIPTION OF THE STATUE.

The statue of Gen. Logan, which was dedicated this afternoon, was designed by St. Gaudens, and is the largest equestrian statue in America. The figure of Gen. Logan, as it stands on its granite pedestal, is dressed in the uniform of a major general. He sits erect and bareheaded, with his left hand grasping the bridle rein, while with his right hand he bears aloft the flag. The endeavor of the sculptor was, to reproduce as nearly as possible, the scene presented as Logan rallied the troops before Atlanta after Gen. McPherson's death.

From the base to the top of the horses withers is 11 feet 3 inches, and

THEY SAY.

If you don't know it all, be frank enough and say so.

"The world is a stage and the people in it are merely players."

If you want to be great, be true to your friends.

The man who is honest is bound to succeed.

The colored politician is a thing of the past.

The disappointed office seeker is the one most hurt.

The most successful man is the truthful man.

The most deceptive man is the one who thinks he has done you a favor.

The kickers are numerous and close together.

The politician never kicks until he is defeated.

The United States Senate will kick.

Do you think you know it all?

The new leadership has produced strange material.

Let us pray for better days.

It is the man who wants the earth who is never pleased.

We often look the world over before we conclude who is the best man.

The new leadership has arrived, what do you think of it?

Pay your money and take your choice.

The colored democrat is a misnomer.

An evil mind has an evil tongue.

Will any District republican see the promised land?

The District politician is wiser, if nothing else.

Be what you ought to be and nothing more.

No liar can succeed.

When you make promises keep them.

Do you want to be in line?

If so keep to the right as the law directs.

The world is full of sin.

Don't be false to your friends.

It is the knave who grins.

The man who shows his teeth is a sneak.

A brave man is honest.

He opens his mouth and speaks out.

Cowards will cry when they are hurt.

THE BEE is the people's choice.

What you know should be kept to yourself.

What is best to be said is best known to yourself.

Moore and Prioleau will repair soon.

John P. Green never offered a bill that was declared unconstitutional.

This is a practical administration.

It is political from start to finish.

Ohio is in the balances and must be watched.

The colored politician is "mud."

Never dislike a man because others do.

Your friends will often tell you to do what they will not do themselves.

They often give you advice that they will not follow.

Do what you think is best.

The Indianapolis Freeman is off its base.

A single clerkship in the recorder's office will satisfy the indignant colored voters.

Who is the big colored man in this administration?

He is weighed in the balances and found wanting.

Nothing is certain until it is made certain.

Don't fail to go to the Personal Liberty League's picnic, August 4.

The colored brother has a lot to learn.

There are regular Authorized Collectors in the employ of THE BEE Printing Co., and when they call to see delinquent subscribers they are requested to pay them, and not give the excuse that "they will see the Editor." The Editor has no time to see the subscribers, and it is hoped that his friends and the patrons of THE BEE will pay the Collector when he calls.

PRESIDENT McKINLEY.

Notwithstanding the criticism that is being made against the present administration, THE BEE is of the opinion that it is premature and unwise. The colored republicans complain that the President is not inclined to appoint them to positions.. Is this true? THE BEE is frank enough to say that it is not true and at the proper time the President will, no doubt, justify the claims of those who are entitled to consideration under his administration. What has been the trouble? For some time colored republicans from the South have made application for places for themselves. Instead of working for their own interest, one set of men have indorsed the other, thus subordinating their own interest for others. Almost every representative colored republican from the South has mixed himself up with the Register of the Treasury. One for this and another for that candidate. Mississppi has taken a hand in the fight and has endeavored by misrepresentations to the President, that such and such a man should not be appointed. What will the result be? When Mississippi comes up for a representative place, she will find the same opposition to her. President McKinley is not to blame for the non-appointment of certain colored men to office.

OUR NEIGHBOR.

Our esteemed contemporary, The Daily Post, seems to agree with a correspondent who resides in New York and who has been on a visit to the Nashville, Tenn. Centenial, in his account of the condition of certain colored people who ride in coaches. This correspondent is no better than the negroes, he has endeavored to introduce. THE BEE is of the opinion, although those poor people are alleged to be dirty, that none of them have ever served a term in the Albany penitentiary. We know the colored people in certain section of the South are poor and unable to clad themselves in such manner that will compare with the more fortunate to whom our esteemed contemporary referred. We don't agree with The Post, that all well dressed colored men are loafers and are inferior to the class referred to by the Albany correspondent. We cannot always judge by a man's dress any more than we can judge by his personal appearance. Perhaps our esteemed contemporary would like to see the well dressed negro play monkey and parrot to suit the fastidious taste of the great and good people who have been more fortunate than some of our colored brethren.

STILL RESOLUTING.

The colored politicians are still resoluting and resolving. The colored brother is kicking because it is claimed that he is not being cared for. If one half of these office-seekers would hunt for some legitimate work instead of hanging around Washington looking for a job, we are sure they would be better off.

A NEW PAPER.

There is to be a new negro organ published in this city, to be known as the National Negro Independent. This paper is to be eight pages and independent in politics. It will advocate political independence among negroes in this country and from what THE BEE can learn it will be a red hot paper. The editors are E. V. Davis and R. S. Laws. Mr. Davis is a lawyer in this city and Rev. R. S. Laws is a preacher,

THE STATUE OF LOGAN.

The citizens of the State of Illinois have honered, at last, one of the truest and greatest men in the history of the American republic. The late John A. Logan was a man, statesman and a soldier. The erection of a bronze statue to his memory and in his honor, is a recognition of the services of a brillaint statesman, a brave soldier and an honest citizen. Mrs. Logan and her son and Mrs. Major Tucker have lived to see honor and justice done to a noble husband and a kind father.

MR. FORTUNE'S ATTACK.

The address of our esteemed friend, Editor Fortune of the New York Age, on last Monday night before the Epworth League, was, to say the least, an unwarrantable attack upon the administration. If President McKinley had said that he was inimical to the Negro, and his interests, we would have occasion to complain.

Why should Mr. Pledger complain? Has he not been a ward of the republican party since reconstruction? Suppose Mr. Pledger did fail to secure the Jamaica Consulship, is that any reason why he should attack the administration? Why did he not see the faults in the administration before? Did they not exist prior to his application for the Consulship? There is but little credence to be placed in the sincerity of Mr. Pledger. He should have found fault before he was told that he could not go abroad.

WHY BOLT?

The question of bolting from the republican party is eminating from men who have either been disappointed in their political aspirations, or from men who have endeavored to pose as leaders. There are representative men among us, who would pose as leaders if they were permitted.

Suppose the Negro did bolt from the republican party? Where is he going? Has the democratic party offered any inducements to him? Has that party ever invited him to be a delegate to their presidential conventions? We admit that the republican party is not without fault. At the same time we are not inclined to persuade the Negro to join the democratic party, unless that party will offer him more than what he gets from the republican party. The moment the Negro leaves the republican party, that moment he commits suicide, unless the democratic party invites him and offers more than he now receives.

FOR THE WHITE BROTHER.

From The Ship.

We serve notice on The BEE, and every one else that whether President McKinley has the courage or not, it will be seen that he will never appoint J. W. Lyons to the position of postmaster at Augusta, Ga. This administration is strictly for the white brother and negroes need not apply.

THE BEE has the most implicit faith in this administration. The black man will fare as well as the white man and the Ship will be convinced that The BEE never lies. Col. Lyons will be taken care of, notwithstanding the report that Mr. Gary does'nt want him appointed.

How deeply did those influential ladies and gentlemen study the wants of the colored race, at the conference held in Hampton, Va., this week?

WHAT I SAW AND HEARD.

Our genial friend John P. Green arrived in the city on last Friday. He, wife and little daughter are the guests of Ex-Senator B. K. Bruce. Mr. Green left Tuesday for West Virginia where a rousing reception will be tendered him. He will return in a few days ready for business.

Col M. M. Holland is now being gaged by the politician. Lawyer Jones asked him a few days ago where the black clerk was that President McKinley was going to appoint as his private secretary after his inauguration. The Col. remarked, Lawyer Jones was entitled to the sympathy of his followers to whom he pointed a land of flowers and honey on the event of Major McKinley's election.

Major Moore is considering the propriety of appointing or recommending another colored detective. Mr. Edward Brockenborough is being considered for the place.

The District politicians are on the anxious bench. They don't know what to do. They are all hungry for an office. The several candidates for official recognition have decided to be cut down to their size.

Commissioners Ross and Wight have made up their minds to move with caution in making appointments. The District republicans are not at all pleased with the way things are moving.

The kickers against the administration are of the opinion that Mr. Fortune's speech would have been more effective had he left Christifer High Jenks Taylor off the program. Ex-Senator B. K. Bruce knew nothing about the meeting nor did he intend to preside.

Mr. Charles R. Douglass will be appointed to his old place in the Pension office. He is an old soldier and a brave one while in battle.

Congress will now adjourn and go home. There are several political fences to be put up before the fall election.

Well, it is amusing to see the kickers kick. President McKinley has'nt changed a bit. He is the same man now that he was before his election. Just as Dr. Johnson remarked a few days ago, the republican party has something else to do aside from looking out for offices. Editor Fortune will make you believe that the moon is made out of green cheese. The people Editor Fortune named in his recent interview have no claim whatever on the republican party. The best thing for them to do is to re urn home and dig potatoes.

It is believed that Major McKinley will give satisfaction to the republicans. Those republicans who don't want to remain in the republican party have a right to do what they see fit. They should consider this one thing: "All the members of the body took it into their heads not to work for the stomach because they said it was idle and useless, so the stomach starved." The best fighters are tho e who remain in the line and fight. Whenever you go outside of the breastworks you lose your grip.

Judge Mills is giving entire satisfaction on the bench. He is a dignified gentleman who knows the law.

Negro democrats still hold on. Col. Pledger and Bill Stevens of Georgia have gone home with bag and baggage. They are no doubt wiser than what they were before.

Rounder.

Public Printer Palmer has a host of republicans to provide for.

There is a popular movement on foot in favor of Judge Mills.

The Capital City Bank is to be congratulated on the success it has made.

The Monument celebration in honor of Senator John A. Logan, was one of the grandest that ever has been witnessed in Chicago.

It would be a good stroke of diplomacy on the part of Major Moore to appoint one more colored detective.

Now that Col. Hill has opposed his best friend, what will he get?

The pits we dig for others are often filled by those who dig them.

THE BEE, will be improved in make up and everything else next September.

There are some men who think they know it all.

NO PLACE FOR THE NEGRO.

From The Ship.

We predict now in answer to the question of The BEE to the administration that not one Negro will be appointed to any prominent position heretofore held by white men in the South. The Ship has long since read the sign in the air. We have known ever since McKinley was elected that his aim was to build up a lily white party and the blacks were not needed—only to vote. Postmaster General Gary is too close to the President to do anything that the President is not aware of. So ask no more questions but wait and see.

The Bristol, Tenn., Ship, an ably edited paper in the south is of the opinion that no colored man will be appointed to a prominent place in the south. President McKinley is only endeavoring to build up the republican party in the south, be it white or black. We know, from personal knowledge that President McKinley is friendly to the black man and he is using every effort to select such representative colored men to positions who will be acceptable to the people.

What has the colored or white republican south done to build up the republican party? No effort whatever is made to hold intact republican organizations, and nothing whatever is heard of a republican committee, until an attempt is made to elect delegates to republican national presidential conventions. The Editor of The Ship does'nt know what he is talking about.

The Epworth League was hard up for a presiding officer.

If there is to be a change in the District Attorney's office, U. M Smith is the man.

President McKinley is very anxious to appoint good men to office.

If bad men are appointed, it is not the President's fault.

The Editor of the Cleveland Gazette, Mr. Smith, will no doubt be appointed to a position.

If the Ohio colored men ever get united, they will realize something.

If members of Congress expect appointments under the District government, they should make the appropriations the Commissioners want.

Good men will no doubt be apto positions.

Mr. Brainard H. Warner, Jr., was confirmed without opposition as Consul to Leipsic. The after effects of Senator Wellington will have no bearing now.

Civil Service is in jeopardy, so says some of our exchanges.

With free silver Hon. J. G. Bryan, will have a christian endeavor administration, when he (sucks-seeds.)

A man who is not prepared to receive congratulations, should not seat himself on the platform at a disgruntled republican meeting.

Why bolt because you cannot succeed in getting the position you seek. Such actions look hypocritical.

AFTER HARRY SMITH.

HE DOES'NT THINK HE IS SINCERE.

Editor THE BEE:

Will or can Hon. H. C. Smith, editor of the Cleveland Gazette, explain to the public, why he has so suddenly come to his present attitude concerning the Ohio state ticket? Has he really the interests and manhood of the race at heart or is it not frankly open retaliation in consequence of defeat?

Can it seem possible, (even taking it for granted that Gov. Bushnell did not do his duty in the late Urbana affair,) that this champion of republicanism(?) who is not such for the spoils of office, but because he believes that the principles embodied in the republican platform are right, and above others are for the best interests of humanity; will he weild his powerful(?) influence(?) among his people in Ohio against Gov. Bushnell who is at the head of the only party ticket that Mr. Smith believes to be right in favor of a ticket he believes to be wrong. If he still expects to fight along the lines he intimates, he must either advise his people to favor the party of misrule, public distress and bankruptcy, or else advise them to deny themselves the grandest privilege possessed by mankind—The right to cast their ballots.

Let us hope that this was an utterance made by Mr. Smith in the heat of passion and that in the calm hour of reason, he will retract, and learn the folly of his ways. Let us hope ere November the lost sheep will come back to the fold.

HEAVY DUTIES ON LINENS.

Will Deprive the People of a Useful Fabric.

The following are some of the comments of a man well acquainted with linens and the linen industry upon the senate doctored Dingley bill:

The proposed duties on linen goods under the amended Dingley bill are heavier than ever, although it has been claimed that the senate had reduced rates. These goods paid for many years 35 per cent. and yielded a steady revenue to the government. The rates now proposed vary from 50 to 109 per cent., and the burden falls heaviest on low and medium goods, which are chiefly used in the homes of the poorer people.

A cheap tablecloth now selling at retail at 25 cents per yard will have to be sold at 37½ cents to 40 cents if the quality be kept up.

Medium linens for children's summer blouses will be assessed 99½ per cent., and the retail price will have to go up accordingly.

Linen forms the raw material for many American industries, as linings for clothing and other purposes where strength and durability are required. Such goods will be advanced 20 to 30 per cent.

It is claimed that this advance is not necessary for revenue, but the effect will be that the people will in many cases substitute something cheaper, and thus be deprived of this useful fabric, and the revenue will be correspondingly diminished. It is said that linen goods can be made here, but this has been tried again and again, and except in the case of a few low crashes has been a failure, owing to the climate and other difficulties, but even if they could be made here the rates are unnecessarily oppressive. The entire cost of weaving linen goods in Europe is about 7½ to 10 per cent. the selling price of the article here, and in America the cost should not be at the very outside more than double this percentage, so that, even if republican theories be true, a protection of 35 per cent. should be ample to allow for higher wages and extra profits for our manufacturers.

It is possible speculators may start mills on the strength of these excessive rates, sell the stock and then step out, leaving the unfortunate laborer and manufacturer to face the difficulties of the situation as best they can. The laborer probably, having been brought here from Europe (for labor is on the free list), with unreasonable expectations, will be left to join the army of disappointment and discontent. Why should these exorbitantly high rates be assessed on an article more or less in use in every household in the land, and the cost of living so much increased in these days of keen competition and small profits? Why should the plain people be taxed to put more money in the pockets of the rich? If the wealthy manufacturers want to make experiments, let them do so at their own cost, not tax the poor for that purpose.

Sugar Trust Profits Cinched.

The trusts have a cinch on Dingley bill profits. Of course they will make many times more if the bill becomes law in anything like its present shape, but they are already engaged in taking part of their profits.

Sugar has risen considerably in anticipation of greatly increased duties, and merchants all over the country are laying in stores because still higher prices are expected. The sugar trust is consequently busy and rolling up profits. In April it imported 757,799,527 pounds of raw sugar, valued at $14,747,139. An extra profit of one-half cent per pound on this amount—which is already realized or guaranteed—means nearly $4,000,000 to the trust.

If the bill is two months longer in its passage, the trust will surely pocket $10,000,000 extra profits before the bill becomes law. Who says protection is not a good thing? And why shouldn't Senator Aldrich push it along and in turn get his street railway syndicates pushed along by the sugar trust? Isn't this reciprocity? Wouldn't Aldrich be an ingrate if he should desert his friends and backers when he has an opportunity to help them.

Overgrown Infant.

I believe in protecting infant industries, but when the infants get to be six feet high and grow whiskers, and when they threaten to kick the end out of the cradle if they don't get more pap, I think it's about time to take the bottle away from them.—Col. R. G. Ingersoll (Rep.).

Prices Going Up.

Prices of sugar, lumber, tea and other articles have already risen since duties have been increased or new ones imposed. The foreigner appears to be somewhat backward in coming forward to pay these tariff duties, but perhaps he was taken by surprise by the senate's action, and will yet pay all duties assessed against him by republicans.

Senatorial Consistency.

The three senators who are responsible for the present senate bill—Aldrich, Platt and Allison—strongly denounced ad valorem duties in 1894. They now go out of their way to give the sugar trust a gratuitous ad valorem duty. Such is consistency.

BAD ADVICE.

MR. FORTUNE AND DEMOCRATIC PRO- CLIVITIES. DISAPPOINTED OFFICE SEEKERS CALL A MEEEING UNDER THE AUSPICES OF AN ALLEGED EPWORTH LEAGUE.

There was a meeting held in South Washington on last Monday night under the auspices of an alleged Epworth League. The League is composed of Negro democratic office holders under this administration and of course the disgruntled republican office seekers were given an opportunity to give vent to their pent up indignation. Mr. W. A. Pledger of Georgia was present, who, by the way, was a candidate for Consul to Jamaica, and because he failed to be appointed, he is advising the Negroes to kick. He joined in with the kickers on last Monday night.

The principal speaker of the evening was Mr. T. T. Fortune, of the New York Age.

"Mr. Fortune" said the speaker, "will talk to us on a subject in which we are or should be deeply interested. He knows what he is to talk about and if we listen as we should, we will go away from this temple of God greatly benefitted. I regret that in late years the church has drifted into politics to the neglect of the higher calling for which it was founded. The auxiliaries are the great feeders of the church and they should be encouraged and fostered. In redeeming and reclaiming men the church and its auxiliaries would do more than all political parties and all elections."

When Mr. Fortune began his address he poked fun at Messrs. Taylor and Pledger, who occupied seats in the pulpit, the former a democrat and the latter an intense republican. He referred to them as the lion and the lamb, and said it did seem that the race was making some advancement, and that there was hope for the future.

He then took up his theme. It was not the past for which his people should be so deeply interested, he said, but the present and the future. The past could not be recalled nor the mistakes remedied, and all should bear in mind that, as a great labor agitator had said: "The injury of one is the concern of all." "If," said the speaker, "a black man or a yellow man in this audience or in this city by the Potomac imagines that he is not interested and partly responsible for the outrages committed on his race in the states, then his bed is one made for fools to lie upon I say if there be one who is thinking that way, he is simply thinking the hat off his head. It is the concern of every true man, let him live in whichever section of the country he may.

THE NEGRO'S FUTURE.

Our future in politics! Great Lord! I fail to see any, so long as we bow down and yield to the white man every position of influence, trust and honor when we are entitled to some of them."

The Speaker said that the white man had been getting everything in sight and making fearful grabs in the dark for anything which might accidentally be left in the shuffle. The future of the colored man in politics depends entirely upon some man or men who would never go to sleep; who would keep an ever-watchful eye. He said he loved his race and was willing to make any sacrifice for it, but he was satisfied that a race which would not trust itself would never succeed.

There was absolutely no future in politics for the colored man unless he would deal with the white man exactly as he dealt with him. The Bible taught "an eye for an eye," and that was what it meant.

Mr. Fortune asked if his audience thought he was in politics for his health, and then answered the question

"Not this summer, my friends," he said. "My children are not loafing around boiling New York for the love of it, while white politicians are enjoying themselves. Now, let me say to you: Mr. McKinley can create as many white men's parties as he wishes, but in the next election in New York, if he needs 1,500 votes, Mr. Fortune will be on deck to see that he does not get them. Mr. Blaine needed 1,200 once upon a time in that state and he did'nt get them.

BUT FOUR PLUMS

"Now, think of it, four colored appointments by Mr. McKinley! Our future in politics! I am real sick. Why not a colored man in the Cabinet? Are we not entitled to it with 1,500,000 votes? It strikes me that we are. Fred. Douglass was made marshal of the District when he was suited to be in the Cabinet. My friends, I don't want an office, but I have come to the conclusion that if the republican party has outgrown the need of the colored man's vote, it is time for us to let them get along without us."

At the close of the address there was a storm of applause. The evening's entertainment was interspersed with some excellent music.

George & Co., 908 7th street, northwest, is where you will find the best gents goods. Take your boys there and say The BEE sent you. Mr. George is an affiable and just man to the people.

When you go to the Center Market go to stands 451, 452 and 453. If you go to the Northern Liberty Market, call at stands 401 and 302. Ask for Mr. Miller or Krogman. They keep the best hams, lards, etc. in any market. Don't fail to give them a call.

Do you want fine produce? If so go to V. S. Moton who has been established since 1866. Stands 199, 200 and 201 Center Market. You can get all you want in fresh vegetables, and delivered to all parts of the city.

Mr. J. R. Gow, the shoe man, at 1638 14th street, northwest, is no doubt the best and cheapest place in that section of the city. If you want cheap and good shoes, don't fail to call at his place of business.

Good butter can be purchased from Mr. Gibbons. Do not fail to call on him.

Mr. John Curtain keeps one of the best places in West Washington. He is a thorough going business man and liked by everybody who does business with him.

THE CENTENIAL EXPOSITION AT NASHVILLE.

SPLENDID SHOWING OF THE RACE. MEHARRY MEDICAL DEPARTMENT, OF CENTRAL TENNESSEE COLLEGE, FISH UNIVERSITY, ROGER WILLIAMS AND OTHER COLORED INSTITUTIONS MAKE A CREDITABLE SHOWING. SOCIAL GOSSIP. PERSONAL &C.

Special to THE BEE.

Nashville, Tenn., July 21.—The splendid showing of the Tennessee Centential is attracting immense crowds every day from various parts of the country. There is everything for the convenience and pleasure of visitors, your correspondent was never treated better by the officials, who have done everything possible to aid in securing a good report for THE BEE. The ground is beautifully and artistically laid off. At the main entrance a superb statute stands out in bold relief, while several bands of excellent music are constantly in attendance, the grounds surrounding the buildings are laid off in la Washington park style, with flowers. The interior of the buildings are decorated in a very becoming manner, with flags and bunting. The first building on the right is the Mineral and Floristry, containing everything known possible in these industries. Among many other interesting exhibits, we notice a very fine reproduction of our Hathway's home, (the wife of Shakespeare) and valuable wood from all the states, on the wall was an excellent picture of the historic city of Chattanooga. Through the kindness of Mr. Ed. F. Sisson, manager, of Cattanooga and Hamilton county exhibits, we were able to gain much valuable information. The hygenic and educational exhibits are worthy of special mention, in this department we noticed some very excellent productions from several of Central Tenn. college and Fisk University students, among those worthy of special mention are some very fine specimens in botany by Misses Wendell and Watkins, Messrs. R. B. Bell, E. W. South, T. H. Elliott, and a few others, while the productions in chemistry, bacterology and ornithology were fine. The specimens of the liver leaf and mustard, by Miss M. E Wendell of Central, are highly commendable. Dr. G. W. Holland, the dean of Meharry, will be sure to receive the medal for the best exhibits of any college in bacterology, chemistry &c. The doctor has also on exhibition the portrait of all the graduates from every department.

The Tuskegee, (Ala.) Institute of which Prof. Booker T. Washington is head, is ably represented in all the industries. In the centre of the grounds the statute of Minerva, the goddess of beauty, towers to lofty height, then comes the giant sea-saw, which is the delight of the young folks, extending about two hundred feet in the air. In the musical department we were very richly entertained by several fine selections on the piano, mandolin and other instruments by W. E Broswell, composer of the Centential March, arranged by Mr. Thos. S. Broody. The white industral department is very commendable in all its details, the representation of the United States Mint, the coining of gold and silver is excellent. On the walls hang the portaits of all the ex-Secretaries of the Treasury. Among them being a very fine portait of Hon. John Sherman, at present Secretary of State. The U. S. Artillery and Cavalry are most beautifully reproduced, the dummy soldiers mounted on the horses and others keeping guard look almost life like, and the U. S. Fish and Fisheries are thing

SOCIETY AT NASHVILLE, TENN.

Special to THE BEE.

There has been quite a buzz in social circles here during the present month. On Tuesday Mrs. Beard gave a luncheon to a small party of friends and The BEE representative. On Friday eve Mr. and Mrs. White of Trimble street, gave a social at their residence; but the event of the month, which is still the chief topic of conversation among the elite of Nashville, is the afternoon tea, given in honor of Dr. C. C. Stewart, of Washington, D. C., at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hightower on Lewis street, Monday evening. The table was beautifully decorated and the refreshments served in splendid style. The gents appeared in the customary evening dress suit, while the ladies in their variegated costumes of the light shades presented a splendid appearance. Among the persons of note present were the Misses Blance and Lula Randal, Mr. Foreman, Mr. J. H. Tyler, Miss Susie Winter, Dr. R. F. Boyd, Mr. Gibson, Misses Alice Cline, Lula Polk, M. E. Wendell, M. L. Allen, Mrs. Nora Avant, nee Winter, Miss Rohelia, one of the South's sweetest singers, Mr. and Mrs. Hightower and several others. On Sunday Mrs. Wendell entertained a few friends at dinner, it was certainly a sumptuous repast. In the evening Dr. R. F. Boyd again treated us to a splendid drive behind his pair of four year old ponies. Dr. Boyd is making extensive improvements to his building. Dr. Lewis will open a drug store in one of the wings of the buildings next month. On Friday the Doctor laid a complaint before the Board of Health regarding several questions concerning medicine for the poor. On Wednesday eve Dr. R. F. Boyd gave a supper to a few friends including Miss Jennette Keeble, Miss Shook of Cleveland, Mr. Shook, Mr. T. Alexander, Dr. C. C. Stewart, Miss M. E. Wendell, and Miss Hermine Smith. The services at St. John's church on Sunday by Rev. Elder Pichett, were both eloquent and impressive.

THE TYPICAL AMERICAN GIRL.

As a type the American girl smiles at us from the canvass of a great artist, and there is a dash of coquetry in her sweet eyes and a suggestion of mysticism in her grave, parted lips. In song and verse, she is celebrated, and she is the very breath of life to the modern novel, to the writer and illustrator alike. But in real life who among us has seen her? Where is she to be found? Not in the West. She is charming there, breezy, spirited, original, slangy, independent, and delightfully unconventional; but provincial rather than national. You may look in vain for her among the fragile, Dresden china bas bleus of New England, whose opinions and accent are equally chilling, and whose dainty eye glasses are never by any chance couleur de rose. South of the Mason and Dixon line there exist sweet voiced, sweet-lipped women, always gracious, graceful and gentle, but, alas! never typical. Surely it will not be necessary to pursue the ignis fatuus beyond New York, for New York expects to be patted every time the American type is mentioned: but strange to say, it is by a careful study of the youth and beauty of this cosmopolitan city that the truth is brought to light, that there is no typical American girl.

We have, indeed, been lured to worship at a false shrine. There is the Gibson girl, who is rather the Southern type with an added hauteur and directness of style; the Smedley girl, who is a combination of New York and San Francisco; the Howells girl, who has the manners of Boston with the soul of Chicago; and the Henry James girl, whose manners and soul are devoid of any local color whatever; but even a composite girl of these four types would scarcely be sufficiently representative. It would be quite as sensible to insist that the daisy should grow like a rose, blossom like an orchid, and carry the perfume of a violet, as to attempt to condense American girlhood, with its varying qualities of earnestness, vivacity, mirth, dignity, gentleness, independence, and mental alertness, into one typical American girl.—From "A Study of the American Girl," in Demorest's Magazine for August.

GEORGE WYMAN FREMONT.

A NEGRO DEMOCRAT CROOKED WORK. CONVICTED IN NEW YORK, THREE YEARS IN PRISON.

New York, July 19.—Geo. Wayman Fremont, a bright-eyed negro, who said that he was a member of the Washington bar, was convicted today before Recorder Goff, in general sessions of swindling the Rev. Dr. E. A. Bradley, vicar of St. Agnes' Chapel. The conviction breaks down a scheme that Fremont and a confederate worked successfully for nearly three years, in which time they got money from some of the most conspicuous citizens of this city. Baltimore and Washington, to carry on the work of an institution that had no existence except in a circular that Fremont drew up. The imaginary institution was called "The Fremont Polytechnic School for the Education of Colored Children," and was represented by Fremont to be at No. 822 North Columbus street, Alexandria, Va. Fremont represented himself as the president and treasurer, and he had a curricular showing that everything from shoemaking and cooking to astronomy and pathoyogy was taught.

He started the scheme in 1895, representing the school to be an experiment in uplifting the children of his race. District Attorney Olcott had in court today a a pile of letters. Among those who said they had given money to Fremont were Dr. Morgan Dix, ex-President Cleveland's physician; Wm. B. Hornblower, H. H. Cammann, Everett P. Wheeler, James C. Carter and the Rev. Drs. Henry Van Dyke and C. D. W. Bridgeman and R. Heber Newton, These are only a few of thousands that Fremont is alleged to have swindled.

He got alleged commendations of the fictitious school from Gen. Fitzhugh Lee and United States Senator John W. Daniel. He got out a circular bearing the names of ninety-one New Yorkers, all of whom he had seen and from whom, it is said, he got money. He used the indorsement of Gen. Lee and Senator Daniel very effectively in Washington.

Fremont made his collecting tours in company with another colored man, John Cheshire, who was arrested with him, but was discharged in the magistrate's court in this city. Fremont received 3 years sentence in Albany penitentiary.

A NOBLE ACT.

A HERO AND NOT A CONVICT.

Frankfort, Ky., July 19.—Gov. Bradley tonight made public a statement announcing why he had granted a pardon to George Denning, the negro who was convicted recently and sentenced to seven years in jail for shooting Jody Conn, who with a mob had come to his house at midnight and ordered him to leave. Denning was guarded by soldiers during his trial at Franklin. The governor says:

"In a day or two after the killing Denning's house was burned. No indictment was ever returned against any member of the band, or against any one who burned the house and the grand jury indicted Denning mainly upon the evidence of self-confessed outlaws. The conviction is easily accounted for. His conviction was procured almost entirely on the evidence of his would-be assasins.

"This poor and friendless man, surrounded by his wife and six children, was ordered, without warrant of law, to leave his home, after which he was fired on and wounded. He defended himself, as every man had a right to do. He did no more than any other should and would do. Instead of convict's garb he is entitled not only to acquittal, but to the admiration of every citizen who loves good government and desires perpetuation of free institutions.

"Too long have mobs disgraced the fair name of Kentucky, and, while I am governor of this Commonwealth, no man, hower obcure and friendless, shall be punished for killing a member of a mob who seeks to take his life or drive him from his home."

L. B.—Don't say that you are satisfied with your complexion and at the same time use all kinds of cosmetics and powders to make your color light er.

Because a certain color looks well on some one else, don't imagine that you would look equally as well in it.

Norah.—I am certainly in sympathy with the old teachers and think there should be some rule made allowing them to retire on pay, still if this was or would be the case, we would see a great many, now apparently young teachers, applying for retirement and our school system would be inadequate, as many of our teachers would cease studying the art of teaching. To be up to date, a teacher should study as well as her pupils.

Lyda:—Of course, some skirts are trimmed, but they are by no means the most stylish. They often have to yield the honor of greatest distinction to a plain one. A plain gored skirt of white swiss is worn under one of white organdie, as a foundation.

Beauty.—The fitted lining of your organdy can be made in the shape of a corset cover, elaborately trimmed.

Lola.—You should not allow new faces to turn your head. True, tried and trusted friends are the ones to stand by.

XX.—To be anxious to marry because so many marriages are now in vogue is absurd. Be more womanly and steadfast.

Sally.—Don't pretend to your best friend or one who is trying to serve you. No good can come to an ingrate.

Nel.—What is the use of living in misery at home, when you can live happier and no doubt cheaper and certainly in more harmony with outsiders.

Goldie:—Your ways of late have certainly changed. You do not possess now the tender and considerate disposition you had years ago. Your associates may no doubt account for this. Remember the old adage "live in a rut, and you will die in a rut."

Mother:—I see nothing strange in the baby's name. Ouida Alez, is a French name which is very pretty. Ouida has quite a history as a writer, and Alez was a noble woman full of thought and purity.

Carrie.—I advise you not to marry him, for, if he is unkind to you now, he certainly will be more so after marriage.

Emma.—In buying a dress, never select a shade that is near the color of your complexion.

Maud.—Since your so-called friend has deceived you once, you shouldn't place so much confidence in him again.

Never laugh at the mistakes of others; it doesn't show good manners.

Ellen.—Since it worries you to fill so many engagements in one evening, you should stop making them. If you desire true friends you must first set the example.

Never make promises unless you intend to fulfill them. An untruthful person is worse than a rogue.

Effie.—You magnify your importance to such an extent, until you are out of the reach of your would-be friends. Be more sedate and less haughty.

You complain of the present length of dress skirts, on account of your large feet. Certainly a large foot in a good quality shoe looks better than the old fashioned trained skirts, which tended to hide ones feet.

O. P.—The texture of one's skin does not denote one's ladyship and just why so many of my nice girls are ruining their would-be good complexion, trying to get lighter, is a question of conjecture.

Julia.—What I dislike to see in man or woman is deception and maliciousness.

A great deal is being said about the art of expression. You should make yourself as intelligent and as learned as you can, without becoming a book worm. Make yourself as wise and strong and as noble as you can. Then when you are called upon to express yourself, you will find that you will have a thought to express.

It is beautiful to see graceful manners in any young girl, but there is nothing more homely than a beautiful girl without grace or manners.

The new visiting cards for ladies about to take a trip abroad, are about an inch and a half long by one inch wide. The name is printed in small type, also the address of your former and present destination.

Don't be too anxious to do a thing, for fear of disappointment.

Don't desert a friend in need, for you may need his services some day.

Ofttimes a person who seemingly has no power, lives to overthrow his brother who has always lived in prosperity.

Only cowards write anonymous letters.

The Fraternal Delegate of the G. U. O. of O. F., to the A. M. C., in England reports good times. While in England he made a great speech on the order in America. He will return home about the last of the month.

Mount Calvary Commandery No. 1, and St. John's Commandery No. 4, K. T., of New York City have accepted an invitation to participate with King Solomon Commandery No. 15, K. T., of Saratoga Springs, on August 16.

ORDER OF THE EASTERN STAR.

The annual election of Eureka Grand Chapter, O. E. S., of New York, which held its session June 30, in Masonic Hall, 99 Sixth avenue, resulted as follows: Mrs. Mary E. Reed, Most Worthy Grand Matron; Bro. Joseph Thompson, Most Worthy Grand Patron; Mrs. Fannie H. Lewis, Most Worthy Grand Associate Matron, Mrs. Annie E. Johnson, Most Worthy Grand Treasurer; Mrs. Catherine Johnston, Most Worthy Grand Secretary.

On the night of the 24th of June, the name of McLeod passed out of social circles of Jackson. Mrs. McLeod, the widow of the Hon. M. M. McLeod, on the 24th, by marriage to Mr. Tom Garner, dropped the historic name and passed it to the things of the past. The marriage took place at the home of Mrs. McLeod and was in every respect of the most fashionable character. Some forty attended the honored event and all found pleasure in the occasion.—From Odd Fellow's Journal.

Mrs. McLeod was the wife of Past Grand Master M. M. McLeod, of the Mississippi Masons.—From Jackson Reporter, June 1897.

MASONS OF GEORGIA.

The Masons throughout the state are enthusiastic over the successful operation of the endowment feature. Hundreds of dollars have been paid out during the past year making the heart of many a poor widow and orphan happy.

Grand Master Terry, as he deserves, has been given unstinted praise and commendation for the arduos manner in which he has labored during the past year. Too much can not be said for what he is doing to place the Grand Lodge in the foremost ranks. In his endeavors he will receive the support of the officers of the Grand Lodge and all of the subordinate lodges.

Georgia can well feel proud of the class of men that compose the various lodges throughout the state. They are always found to be among the best class of citizens, law abiding and industrious.

It would have made the heart of every mason glow with pride and admiration if they could have beheld the Grand Lodge in session. To see the many able and representative men that compose that body.

The public demonstration of the Grand Lodge on St. John's Day was the grandest in the annals of the order. The hundreds of Masons with bright jewels and regalias attracted much attention and were the recipient of much favorable comment.

The Masonic order will inaugurate a movement that will be the first in the history of any secret society in this state. The last Grand Lodge session empowered a committee to select a site, near the central part of the state and erect thereon a home for the widows and orphans of deceased Masons. Backed up by the judgment of the Grand Master, the committe expects to select the site and have the corner stone laid by September next. This will be hailed with much delight by the craft everywhere, who will join in saying "Praise God from Whom all blessings flow."

All true Masons feel a pride in the order, more so now than ever.

For information, Masonic or otherwise, apply to office of Chief of Bureau, 1120 11th street n. w. Also, watch The BEE, our organ.
